President's Message

by Eileen Parlow

I'd like to extend a warm welcome to those of you who are new to AGA DC and to those of you who are long-time members.

My goal for the DC Chapter for the coming year is to provide you with outstanding opportunities for professional education, networking, and community service, and to encourage you to communicate your interests and ideas to our leadership team. Our very dedicated and talented leadership team is here to support you.

Among the innovations that you will see this year are:

- An updated chapter website that will make it easier for you to be aware of upcoming events, and:
- A proposed set of chapter bylaws, using a model provided by AGA National, that will make the process of recruiting and selecting chapter leaders more open and transparent to our members.

Among very popular activities that will continue this year are:

- CGFM training
- Monthly luncheons with outstanding speakers
- Educational events and seminars
- Community service opportunities
- Membership appreciation events
- Special events for early career members
- The ever-popular recruitment contest with cash prizes.

Our monthly newsletter, website, and occasional e-mail blasts will keep you informed of all that's going on. Thank you for being a member of AGA DC. I look forward to serving you as Chapter President during the coming program year.

Sincerely,

Eileen Parlow

Washington DC Chapter

Note From the Editor

by Jorge Asef-Sargent,
Editor

Welcome to the September edition of the Washington Connection! I hope everyone had an enjoyable summer and had an opportunity to re-charge and get ready for the year-end activities. Our newsletter team is truly looking forward to bringing you the Washington Connection for another year.

First, we would like to welcome Eileen Parlow, the new president of the AGA Washington DC Chapter. In the President's Message, Eileen outlines the DC Chapter's major goals for this year. Also, I would like to welcome Deborah Khavkin as a co-editor of the Washington Connection newsletter.

This newsletter is only made possible because of the contribution of articles from the chapter's members. Thank you for all who submitted articles—these articles reflected the depth of knowledge and experience in this group, and the newsletter team is fortunate enough to review and publish these articles. We hope that you enjoy the newsletter and find it helpful for keeping up to date on events in the chapter and in AGA. Our team strives to produce a high-quality newsletter notifying AGA D.C. members of Chapter and National events and services. And, if you are not already a member, we encourage you to join the AGA D.C. Chapter and enjoy the many benefits it offers, in particular the high-quality luncheon series, learning opportunities, and conferences.

Do you have any comments or suggestions regarding the newsletter? Do you have an article you would like to see printed? Have you developed a time-saving process or procedure on the job? Have you traveled to any interesting locations? The Washington Connection requests that you submit any and all items of interest to our federal, state, and local members, including: reviews of recently published books related to financial management; unique travel experiences or assignments; lessons learned on roll-outs of new systems; appointments or promotions; employment opportunities; and noteworthy accomplishments by our members. We also welcome digital photos that accompany your submission. Your articles, comments, and ideas are what make this newsletter go and we welcome all input!

Sincerely,

Jorge Asef-Sargent

CGFM News and Upcoming Events

By Karl Payne and Leon Fleischer

Welcome to a New Year of CGFM Opportunities and News

I am pleased to announce that Leon Fleischer, and myself are returning as your CGFM Committee Team for the 2012 – 2013 Program Year. As we all prepare for a new year, Leon and I would like to highlight some of the exciting new opportunities that we have planned for our Chapter members, as well as other items of interest.

If you have questions or interest in CGFM please feel free to contact Leon or myself at kpayne@kpmg.com and fleischerl@sec.gov.

Planned Highlights (more info to follow on each of these in the next issue):

- CGFM Training:
 - The DC Chapter will again be hosting free training for all three modules of the CGFM Exam. This class will take place in March. These have proven to be very popular classes. Last year, this class was filled to capacity.
 - For the first time, we will be offering an intensive review class, planned for January.
- Essay Contest – We will plan to hold an essay contest this Fall with the chance to win exam reimbursements.
- Scholarship – We are also planning to offer scholarship opportunities to assist with funding CGFM exam fees.
- As always, we will continue to highlight the achievements of our CGFM members at Chapter events and trainings.
- Please look for further information during the year on these exciting opportunities.

DC Chapter Awarded the Chapter CGFM Award for the Third Year in a Row

Each year, AGA presents awards to recognize AGA chapters that have done an outstanding job in promoting the CGFM Program to its members, other accountability professionals and their community. Last year, the 2011 – 2012 Program Year, the DC Chapter received the award for Group A (Large Chapter). The DC Chapter also received this award for the 2010 – 2011 and 2009 – 2010 Program Years. These awards reflect the Chapter's willingness and dedication to furthering the recognition of the CGFM Program, and to providing our members with several opportunities and resources to help achieve their certification goals.

Early Careers Corner

On August 17th, Howard University Faculty invited AGA DC Early Careers, Stephen Wills, to conduct a presentation on AGA, in general, and Early Careers, in particular to a group of 55 freshman and sophomore accounting students. It was a truly exciting and stimulating experience to meet and greet with accounting students and tell what AGA is all about and what AGA can do for your career. More importantly, AGA DC Early Careers is collaborating with Howard University on a going forward basis. For instance, a small group of Howard University students will be attending a monthly luncheon.

On August 23rd, AGA DC Early Careers hosted an intimate meet and greet for all Early Careers at Clyde's in Gallery Place. It was a wonderful experience being at Clyde's again and filled with stories of AGA DC Galore and food and drink!!!

Finally, just to mention that AGA DC Early Careers is in the planning phase of the third annual famous Dave's meet and greet BBQ with NOVA and PG/MC AGA Early Careers, to be held at Haines Point in the latter half of September. More to follow!!!!

We hope to see you at an event soon! Questions/comments can be directed to co-directors Stephen Wills at sgwillsusa@yahoo.com and Nathan Alston at nathanalston@gmail.com.

Want to Make a Difference?

Consider a Career in Government Financial Management

Are you, or someone from your chapter planning to attend a career fair, or an event for college students? AGA now has an eye-catching brochure that offers information about government financial management careers and answers questions for aspiring government financial managers regarding the qualifications and skills needed to get started. It also includes a bookmark for students that directs them to the Tomorrow's Professionals website for more information. To order free copies of the brochure, please submit the collateral order form found in the Members Only section on the AGA national website www.agacgfm.org or contact Jessica Jones at JJones@agacgfm.org.

Luncheon Speaker: Norman Dong

In April 2012, Norman Dong joined the Office of Federal Financial Management within the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) as the Deputy Controller. As Deputy Controller, Mr. Dong is responsible for helping coordinate OMB's efforts to initiate government-wide improvements in all areas of financial management, including financial reporting, improper payments, open government, and real property management.

Prior to joining OMB, Mr. Dong served as the Chief Financial Officer of Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) within the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Mr. Dong has significant experience in all levels of government. In the District of Columbia he served as Deputy Mayor for Operations and City Administrator under Mayor Anthony A. Williams. He re-established control of city operations from the Financial Control Board and led the effort to achieve visible service improvements during the Administration's first year in office. He managed the Y2K computer systems response including the attainment of millions of dollars in federal funds to support the District's necessary conversion efforts. He also strengthened the District's strategic planning process by linking agency performance expectations with the annual budget cycle and an evaluation process for agency directors.

Mr. Dong held various positions within District government since he first began as Director of the Office of Grants Management in 1996. In that role, he introduced the first citywide system for identifying and tracking grant opportunities, resulting in a major increase in the amount of competitive grants awarded in the first year of implementation. He led the effort to increase funding for Medicaid, Child Support, and other Federal entitlement programs through more effective claims management. As Chief of Staff in the Office of the Chief Financial Officer, he helped manage a citywide effort to achieve a balanced budget and obtain a clean audit opinion for the District.

Mr. Dong also served as Special Assistant for Policy Development and Research for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and as a primary aide for finance and accounting in the Office of the State Comptroller in Connecticut.

He holds a Bachelor's degree from Yale University and a Master's degree from the Harvard University John F. Kennedy School of Government. He currently resides in Washington, D.C., with his wife and two sons.

The 2012-2013 membership committee is thrilled for the opportunity to help the AGA DC Chapter continue to grow and thrive. Our main purpose is to continue building membership and attracting interest in all DC Chapter offerings, including continuing professional education and networking opportunities. Our team consists of a diverse group of talented people from government and private sector.

The members are:

Boris Lyubovitsky
Co-Director

Lena Lewis
Co-Director

Sal P. Ercolano, Jr.
Assistant Director

Mimi Goodwin
Assistant Director

Planned Highlights:

- Recruitment Contest: The membership committee will continue to run its successful and popular recruitment contest. The first 20-30 members of the DC Chapter to recruit/sponsor a new member, and attend a chapter luncheon with the new member, will receive a $50 Visa or Master Gift card. The new member will also receive a $50 Visa or Master Gift card and their first luncheon free. What a terrific incentive! There also will be additional opportunities to participate in the contest during recruitment happy hours. Stay tuned for further details.
- Publishing Names of New Members: The team will continue to publish names of all new members in the monthly Newsletter and start sending a DC chapter new member welcome letter.
- Photos of New Members and Sponsors at the Monthly Luncheons: The team will continue to provide a monthly newsletter article with photos/names of new members and/or sponsors recognized at the monthly Chapter luncheons.

Inside the Black Box

by Simcha Kuritzky, CGFM CPA

Revenue and the Statement of Financing Note

One of the most confusing external reports is the Statement of Financing (SoF or Note 42). Accounts are frequently assigned to multiple lines, and it is not clear if these are mutually exclusive or if their balances are to appear on each line. This column focuses on how revenue is reported on the SoF.

State of Financing Purpose

The SoF starts with total obligations, nets out non-expenditure activity, offsets collections, and adds in non-budgetary expenses to derive Net Cost. It thus forms a bridge between the Statement of Budgetary Resources (SBR) and the Statement of Net Cost (SNC). Revenues are initially represented by offsetting collections (and receivables) from the SBR, but any revenues that have no budgetary impact must also be added in, and any revenues supported by the budget but excluded from the SNC have to be deducted.

Revenue and Collections

Revenue collections are represented on multiple lines of the Statement of Financing. If they are for reimbursements or otherwise fund operations, they appear on line 2 (these are known as offsetting collections and also appear on lines 1890 of the SBR). If they go into a special receipt or trust fund that is maintained by the agency, they appear on line 4 (these are known as distributed offsetting receipts and also appear on line 4200 of the SBR, but would not appear on SBR line 1890). Now if, for some reason, the collection appears on lines 1890 or 4200 of the SBR but the associated revenue does not appear on the Statement of Net Costs, it is backed out in 14A (for credit reform) or 14B (for all other revenue). Trust funds with exchange revenue can also report them on line 27, but I'm not certain if that line is backing them out or adding them back in.

The SGL is of little use when reporting revenue on the SoF, because the distinctions being made are based on the type of fund and not the SGL account. SoF lines 2 and 14A actually use the budgetary collection and receivable accounts (421200, 422100-422500 and 425100-428700), while lines 4, 14B, and 27 use the proprietary revenue accounts (510000-560900, 575000, 580000-590900). Since proprietary revenue accounts are normally credited when the budgetary collection and receivable accounts are debited, lines 4 (and possibly 14B) can be derived by netting the two against each other. The only surviving entries would be in funds that don't post budgetary authority.

In fact, SoF Line 4 must agree with the cash reported on the FMS-224, so the only proper SGL account is 101000 Fund Balance with Treasury, as the revenue accounts can include accrual activity as well.

MEET AND GREET AT CLYDE'S!!!

Meetings Team

Ryan Bolz

The Meetings Committee would like to once again welcome everyone back to Clyde's Restaurant of Gallery Place for another great series of luncheons this year. There is an excellent line up of speakers planned to deliver some great messages to the AGA DC Chapter. For the September luncheon, please ensure to sign-up early, as we expect a packed crowd as usual. Also, make sure you get to Clyde's around 11:30am to allow enough time to get situated and enjoy the 3-course meal that is offered.

Mark Kandra

We shall see you September 13th at Clyde's – Gallery Place/Chinatown.

Best Regards,
