

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members & Friends:

As tax season quickly approaches, I'd like to thank Holly Sabo from Mercadieu for helping prepare us for the long days ahead by presenting her annual tax update at our January dinner meeting. Our next dinner meeting will be held on Wednesday, March 8th.

Love is in the air as Valentine's Day nears and we've already begun collecting homemade Valentine's Day cards to deliver to a local nursing home. Thank you to those who have made cards. We'll have supplies available to create your own Valentine's Day greeting at our 3rd Annual Bowling Networking event at Slocum's on Friday, February 3rd. This event is free to students and potential new members so be sure to bring a friend who may be interested in learning more about AGA! Snacks will be provided and you'll have a chance to win prizes!

We're continuing our efforts to sustain a Green Chapter by switching to electronic surveys for our CPE events. After our events you'll be emailed a link to fill out a survey online so make sure your email with us is up to date!

There's still time to respond to our survey to let us know how we're doing and help us decide how to celebrate our 40th Anniversary this year. Please use the link provided:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/JSMR7F5>

Your input is greatly appreciated!

Check out our website for chapter updates as well as pictures from our events & "like" us on Facebook!

Sincerely,

Kiersten Kokotajlo

AGA Citizen Centric Report (CCR) Turns 10!

In 2007, AGA launched the Citizen Centric Reporting (CCR) Initiative. Former AGA CEO Relmond P. Van Daniker brought together AGA members representing federal, state and local governments to develop criteria for a 4 page report designed to communicate to citizens the business of government.

The AGA Winter Journal for 2016-2017 featured an article of the CCR turning 10! The CCR offers transparency and accountability for public-sector entities. Read what AGA has to say about the CCR hitting this great milestone. Click on the link below:

AGA looked at ways to improve financial performance reporting more than 10 years ago, and, following an extensive study and examination of the public-sector financial and performance reporting outputs and surveys of citizens by AGA members and staff, the AGA Citizen-Centric Report (CCR) was conceived.

In extolling the platform for CCR, AGA's former executive director, Relmond Van Daniker was often quoted as saying, "Citizens are drowning in data but starving for information." Ann Ebberts, AGA's CEO, said CCR can be viewed as an early adopter in providing transparency and information in context in a way all Americans should be able to understand. "The CCR can be used in so many ways and can quickly get the public, staff, and new leaders current on the agency mission, demographics, accomplishments and priorities for the future. It's come a long way in 10 short years, and we look forward to the next 10!"

About the Paul Vidunas Memorial Fund

ANCHOR HOUSE
The Houses Where Healing Begins

The Paul Vidunas Memorial Fund was established in 1998 shortly after the death of then Trenton Chapter President Paul Vidunas. During his lifetime, Paul was very involved in community service as an enthusiastic volunteer for various community based organizations. The establishment of a fund that would support a variety of community service groups seemed a fitting tribute to this memory.

Each year a different recipient is selected to receive funds collected throughout the Chapter's program year. The local area charity for this year's Paul Vidunas fund is Anchor House. The agency's mission is to work with abused, homeless, runaway, at risk and aging out youth to utilize their strengths and the support of their families and communities in order to ensure a stable and successful home. For information about the charity: <http://anchorhousenj.org/>

The Trenton Chapter AGA holds drawings at monthly meetings and educational events to raise funds for the Paul Vidunas Memorial Fund. For more information on how you can contribute to this worthy cause contact the AGA Trenton local chapter now at <https://www.agacgfm.org/Chapters/Trenton/Home.aspx>
