

BIOGRAPHY

Renee Hayden

Renee Hayden has over 30 years of accounting, auditing, and consulting experience across a variety of industries. In 2008, she joined the City of Dallas' City Auditor's Office and worked there for 4 years before accepting a position to establish the City Manager's Citywide Internal Control Task Force. She led the Internal Control Task Force from its formation in 2012 until its integration into the Center for Performance Excellence last year. Renee is currently the Interim Managing Director of the Center for Performance Excellence where she manages a staff of 10 employees and oversees the City's internal control services, Lean Six Sigma program, ISO Quality Management System, and other complimentary consultative services to City employees.

Renee is a Dallas native who holds a BBA in Accounting from the University of Texas at Arlington. She is a CPA and a Certified Fraud Examiner. Her memberships include the Association of Government Accountants, the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, the Institute of Internal Auditors, and she is an Innovation Ambassador with the Alliance for Innovation.