

Matt Gorman, CPA
Partner-Elect, Cotton & Company

Mr. Gorman is a partner at Cotton & Company with over a decade of experience in performing financial statement and performance audits. His career has covered a broad range of audit areas and agencies, having conducting audits in both the financial and IT realms, for civilian and DoD agencies, for legislative and executive branch agencies, at both large and small federal entities. He has led performance audits that have collectively identified hundreds of millions of dollars in funds put to better use and questioned costs.
